

Visual Arts

Chalk the Block at Indian Creek Festival, Saturday, September 21, 2019 | no cost
Send your young artists to the Caldwell Fine Arts Chalk the Block contest! Indian Creek Plaza in Downtown Caldwell comes alive with chalk images showing the artistic talent of community members of all ages with a theme of "Pure Imagination." This contest has a twist...a real person must be incorporated into the drawing! All students welcome! Register at www.caldwellfinearts.org.

Non Reyes, Mouth Artist | Flexible Dates between 10 am - 2 pm | $25 per class, supplies included | 1-hour program at your school | 4th grade and up

Non Reyes was injured in an car accident in 1992 and was paralyzed from the shoulders down. With a brush or pencil held in his mouth, he's learned to express himself as an artist. Mr. Reyes will share his story and demonstrate his painting technique. Students will then create a piece of art using only their teeth. Especially appropriate for art classes, but applicable for any students 4th grade and up for discussions of resilience and inclusion.

Theatre

Legends of Coyote: Native American Folk Tales | Tuesday, October 8, 2019 | Elementary Schools | Morning assembly at your school | $200 assembly 12:30 pm | Jewett Auditorium | $3 per student

Nearly every indigenous culture in the world tells 'trickster tales'. Prevalent in North America are stories about the infamous Coyote! Coyote Tales is a compilation of two hilarious stories and is performed with puppets, masks, and costumes inspired by Northwest native art.

Children's Theatre: The Flower of Sunnymount Crest | Friday, January 24, 2020 | Jewett Auditorium | $3 each | Elementary Schools | 10:00 am and 1:00 pm

Scandinavia's folk tradition comes to life in an enchanting tale of the deep woods where trolls, fairies, and witches keep their secrets. One small girl sets out on a journey to reach her only hope of happiness, an elusive flower on top of Sunnymount Crest. Local children shine in this original musical, directed by Drama Kids International.

Auditions for "Sunnymount" | Thursday, January 16, 2020 | Jewett Auditorium | 4:30 pm Grades 1 - 3 | 5:30 pm Grades 4 - 12 | $20 participation fee (scholarships available)

Send your young actors to audition for a part! All parts are cast with local children, and all children will receive a role. See caldwellfinearts.org for preregistration, FAQ's for parents, and audition materials.

100th Anniversary of Women's Suffrage

Living Voices: Hear my Voice | Monday & Tuesday, March 9 & 10, 2020 | Assembly at your school | $100 | 1 hour program | Middle School and High School

With one actor and projection of historical images, Living Voices tells the powerful story of Women's Suffrage during Women's History Month. Jessie is growing up in Washington, DC during the early 1900s with dreams of being able to vote like her brothers. This program aims to educate students about the struggle for women's right to vote in an engaging way.

Gary Eller: Strong Women of Idaho | Flexible Dates | Assembly at your school | $25 per class | 4th grade and up

People know master songwriter and storyteller Gary Eller for his songs about Idaho History. He'll treat schools to songs about Strong Women of Idaho, with folk songs and his own compositions chronicling the stories of Idaho's female pioneers. He also offers a residency where students find their own songwriting voice, putting historical stories to music. This program focuses on 4th graders learning Idaho History, but program can be tailored for other ages.

Masterclasses and Workshops

Arcis Saxophone Quartet | Wednesday, October 23, 2019 | Band masterclass at your school | $200 | 50 minutes | Middle School or High School

These four young musicians from Munich explore the relationship between individual expressivity and interwoven ensemble performance with one unified voice. They've won competitions and delighted audiences throughout Europe and now bring their passionate performance to Idaho. Flexible Masterclass or Lecture/Demonstration format.

Scott Kritzer, Classical Guitar | Thursday, November 7, 2019 | Voice or instrumental masterclass at your school | $100 | 50 minutes | Middle school or High School

Nearly every performer, amateur to professional, suffers from some level of performance anxiety. While performance anxiety is a natural condition of human nature, with the right coaching its affects can be minimized, or entirely overcome. A few of your students will perform and receive direct coaching while the others observe and practice techniques.

Trebelles Piano Trio | Flexible April 2020 | Orchestra masterclass at your school | $100 50 minutes | Middle or High School | Assembly performance also available

Tips on playing chamber music for your orchestra students! Cellist Jennifer Dunn, violinist Heidi Nagel, and pianist Robyn Wells help your students explore the performance style of small group chamber music. This can also be a coaching session for your small ensembles.

Literary Arts

Ingrid Law, Author of Savvy | Tuesday & Wednesday, April 14 - 15, 2020 | Assembly at your School | $200 | 50 minutes | 4th grade and up

What if your Grandpa moves mountains, one of your brothers causes hurricanes, another creates electricity... and now it's your turn to find your unique ability? The Newbery-winning book Savvy takes readers on a journey that leaves them eager to find their unique gifts. Author Ingrid Law inspires students to play with language, find their voice, and embrace writing.

Nutcracker

Eugene Ballet's The Nutcracker | Wed., December 4 & Thurs., December 5, 2019 10 am | Jewett Auditorium | $4 each | Perfect for Elementary, all grades welcome

With the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier as guides, you'll fly away to the Snow Kingdom and the Land of the Sweets, but not before battling the Mouse King! The Nutcracker is a holiday tradition for many schools. Two full school shows are available this year to accommodate demand. Reserve early!

Additional Assemblies and Special Needs

Scott Kritzer | Thursday, November 7, 2019 | Assembly at your School | $100 Elementary Schools

"Musical Landscapes" presents music from Germany, Brazil, and Africa, the home of woods that make up Scott Kritzer's guitar. Mr. Kritzer will show your students how music unifies and brings us together, much as the materials do for his instrument. This can be grade-level, or a

Scott Kritzer | Sensory-friendly, Special Needs Concert | Friday, November 8, 2019 | Langroise Recital Hall | 11:00 am | $3

This 45-minute program offers accommodations for sensory-sensitive and special needs students. There will be an instrument "petting zoo" 20 minutes before and after the concert, and consideration will be given to light and sound so all students can enjoy a live performance.

How do I make a reservation?

Fill out an Outreach reservation request for each program requested at www.caldwellfinearts.org/outreach. Priority will be given to the first forms received, so reserve programs early!

Can parents and teachers attend?

Up to five (5) chaperones per class can attend programs in Jewett. Chaperones are charged the same rate as the students. There is no limit to chaperone attendance for programs at your school.

How do we pay?

We receive generous grants to cover most of the outreach program costs. Schools pay a small co-payment. One week before each program, you'll receive an invoice. The invoice will include a final seat count for you to confirm. You will be billed for the confirmed number of seats regardless of how many students attend.

We can't afford buses. Do you have assistance?

We frequently offer bus grants to pay a portion of busing costs. These funds are based on grant monies CFA receives. If grants are available, CFA will pay up to $50 per bus.

What is your cancelation policy?

If your school is cancelled on the day of a performance, or if CFA cancels a program, your fees are refunded. For any other reason, please transfer your reservation to other students. Some artists going out to your school may be flexible and could be rescheduled, but most are in town for one or two days only.

Where are your programs located?

Jewett Auditorium and Langroise Recital Hall are on The College of Idaho campus at 2112 Cleveland Blvd in Caldwell. If utilizing a GPS, navigate to Jewett Auditorium, not The College of Idaho. The auditorium can be accessed at 20th and Fillmore. Driving and bus parking directions are sent with your confirmation. Please only pick up and drop off children in designated areas for their safety.

How can I reach you?

I'm excited to work with you to bring arts opportunities to your students! Please contact:

Monique Michel-Duarte, Director of Education
education@caldwellfinearts.org
208-459-5783
www.caldwellfinearts.org/outreach

